Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

and the pole is on both sides of the plate;

a second set of holes in the sleeve (holes located on both side of the sleeve)
arranged to receive a member (80) perpendicular to the pole;

the spool (60) on the pole; and a grip (64, 66) inline with the spool.

Goldstein further discloses:

Regarding claims 10-11, a second set of holes (Figures 5 & 6 show the holes located on the sleeve and pole) along the pole (correspond to the holes on the sleeve) arranged to receive a member perpendicular to the pole;

Regarding claims 15-16, a brake assembly (62, 64, 66 72, 74, 76 – column 4, lines 10-14) disposed toward the first end of the pole; and wherein the brake assembly communicates with the spool (60).

It should be pointed out that Goldstein also discloses other embodiments which may be applicable to the claimed invention.
